Note: Each daylily cultivar is registered with the American Hemerocallis Society AHS (there are 50,000+ registered cultivars) with the information provided by the hybridizer from observations in his garden. Your garden is likely to have a different geographic location, soil type, micro-climate etc. The daylilies may appear slightly different in your garden.
 You can use these guidelines as a start.

AHS is American Hemerocallis Society
 AHS registers new cultivars and give annual awards.
 Hemerocallis means "beauty for a day" in Greek
